

TriCity Association of Realtors presents:

“STATEWIDE FORMS & BEST OF THE LEGAL HOTLINE”

with Annie Fitzsimmons

Thursday, October 16, 2014

Annie Fitzsimmons, Esq.

Annie serves Realtors in Washington state as the attorney for the Washington (Association of) Realtors. She oversees the administration of the WR Legal HotLine.

Annie was raised in a real estate family, and has been involved in the real estate profession her entire career. She is a graduate of the University of Washington School of Law, and began her legal career with the Tacoma firm of Gordon, Thomas, Honeywell, Malanca, Peterson, and Daheim. She was one of the firm’s primary residential real property lawyers until 2001 when she left to open her own practice. Annie worked with Realtors to draft the Washington Agency Law, and was instrumental in drafting and passing the Licensing laws currently in place in our state. She has sued and defended property owners, buyers, sellers, and brokers across the state, but Annie’s priority is to ensure that no Washington Realtor is ever sued again for something they could have avoided. She strongly believes education is the best way to achieve this goal. Register today for this special class and take advantage of her experience.
